

Directions: You will probably find your persuasive essay very convincing. Without peer review, however, it's difficult to tell whether it will convince others. Ask a friend or classmate to read your essay and answer the following questions.

Questions To The Reader

- 1. Where do you think the writer stands on the issue being discussed?

Response: _____

Suggestions for Revision: _____

- 2. How reasonable does the claim seem?

Response: _____

Suggestions for Revision: _____

- 3. Which of the writer's reasons do you find most convincing? Which do you find least convincing?

Response: _____

Suggestions for Revision: _____

GUIDELINES FOR PEER RESPONSE, CONTINUED

4. What other evidence would help support the writer’s reasons?

Response:_____

Suggestions for Revision:_____

5. How can the writer improve his or her response to counterarguments? Is the writer overlooking any counterarguments?

Response:_____

Suggestions for Revision:_____

6. Who do you think is the intended audience? Is the essay appropriate for this audience?

Response:_____

Suggestions for Revision:_____
